The turn away from being honest
We themself for when the world is known before
And now he knows that he wants much more,
The conscience grows and a new day unfolds

Isn't it what you want,
To be a hero
To come and save the day and live forever,

It's what i want
To make a change for good because you matter to me, do
i matter to you?

And every care before another
All the fun at the expense of getting hurt Now he knows, that it all comes down and the conscience grows, can you hear the sound?

Isn't it what you want?
To be a hero
To come and save the day and live forever

It's what i want,
To make a change for good because you matter to me,
do
i matter to you?

The conscience grows...

You're the hero,
I'll follow, the conscience grows,
You're the hero

Isn't it what you want,
To be a hero
To come and save the day

Isn't it what you want,
To be a hero,
To come and save the day and live forever,

It's what i want
To make a change for good, cause you matter to me, do i
matter to you?...To you?
