It's getting warm,
The night is young but your walking alone once again
See the sides, familiar faces seem to walk on by Hand in hand

I think of you what you, would look like in discovereing truth and, how I feel Could this be true
Because I've been thinking about you, about you

I thought I saw you in the summer sky
You looked at me and I saw the stars in your eyes
I thought I heard you, was I out of line?
Or is this love, and maybe we'll find our light

So step aside, was this a feeling
When she walked on by, did I fail to see?
And it makes sense, my heart dreams because I dream of us
And I dream of what could be

I thought I saw u in the summer sky
You looked at me and I saw the stars in your eyes
I thought i heard you, was I out of line?
Or is this love, and maybe we'll find our light

Maybe we'll find our light.

So here I go, my hands are shaking as I walk so slow to you
Is this the end? Or just beginning?
So special my friend, it's me and you

Me and you

I thought I saw you in the summer sky
You looked at me and I saw the stars in your eyes
I thought i heard you, was I out of line?
Or is this love, and maybe we'll find our light

Maybe we'll find our light

Oh oh
