"Worth The Wait"

When the fighting is over
And we come out of our caves
This moment's forever
This world has been changed

If I'm not mistaken you have been worth the wait
If I'm not mistaken you have been worth the wait

You can feel it in the night air
And you can see it from his shoulders
I know it's safe for you to reach out
Safe for us to lay down
And I've never been taller

If I'm not mistaken you have been worth the wait
If I'm not mistaken you have been worth the wait
These walls have been breaking
You will be worth the wait

When the timing is all wrong
When it's hard to see a way out
We'll look back on this day
This war has been won

(I wanna say, I wanna say you have been worth the wait)

If I'm not mistaken you have been worth the wait
If I'm not mistaken you have been worth the wait
