When the pilots are just about to cry
I drive faster

My life on the speedway
My hands on the steering wheel
Risk of racing in my eyes
As fast as a cannonball
Engines like a rock'n' roll
Yellow moonlight in the sky

Push and never look back
Push and never give up tonight people say
All my energy and all my knowledge
Are yelling loud into my brain

On my speedway
In the pouring rain
I want to survive oh yeah
When the pilots are about to die
I like pushing

It's a speedway flowing in the veins
And I feel alive oh yeah
When the pilots are just about to cry
I drive faster

2nd verse from long version:

Friends are waiting for me there
With no chances to know where
I will suddenly come from
Silent people at the beat
Pray the Lord to drive me neat
And to lead me safe back home
