Rational behavior
French kissing a stranger
You say nothing else is dangerous
All you want is a kiss

Words run through the street now
It's just how we compete now
It's just rational behavior
Can you fuck with this?

All the way
Nothing to turn back to
This is how we move

Can't explain
What feels good and what is right
Does it matter anyway?
Does it matter anyway?

Lift the curse
Lift you hands and live the laws
Of the land

It's dangerous
A matter of square wheels and love devices
And some things we'll never understand

Rational behavior
French kissing a stranger
You say nothing else is dangerous
All you want is a kiss

Words run through the street now
It's just how we compete now
It's just rational behavior
Can you fuck with this?

Rational behavior
Frenchkissing a stranger
You say nothing else is dangerous
All you want is a kiss

Words run through the street now
It's just how we compete now
It's just rational behavior
Can you fuck with this?

All the way
Nothing to turn back to
