Those big brown eyes, they tend to shine,
Every time that we exchange, a hello or good-bye.

One thing you can count on, is that Iâ€™ll always be hereÂ...
Whether you have a not so good day at school, or get
Student of the year.

Well I sure do love you, like the grass loves the rain
I sure am gonna soak it up, as long as I can.

One thing that I promise, til the day I pass awayÂ...
Iâ€™ll love you as my daughter, Iâ€™d have it no other
wayÂ...
No other wayÂ... X3
Watching you grow up, a little taller by the day..
With every inch, another year has gone away, well
youâ€™reÂ...

Smile gets bigger, and your hair gets longer,
Every day that passes, our love grows stronger.

So glad to share a life, with youÂ... Iâ€™d like to sayÂ...
Iâ€™ve always got your backÂ... Iâ€™d have it not other wayÂ...
No other way.. X3
Youâ€™re all grown up, a few years down the roadÂ...
Looking back, weâ€™ll love the past, til we all grow old

I will always walk with you, Iâ€™ll always hold your hand,
I promise I will care for you, the best I canÂ...

I promise I will laugh with you, every single dayÂ...
Love you unconditionally, Iâ€™d have it no other wayÂ...
No other wayÂ... X3
