Entering the infernal
Breathing the fire
Obeying with pride
They are to shake the earth
Stronger than the most
Demonic of them all
Look inside me my demonhost

Risen from Gehenna
Uncowardly ones
Breathing the fire
Obeying with pride
They are here, the earth trembles
Stronger than the most
Demonic of them all
Look inside me
(and find) my demonhost

Once the shadows danced on the graves
Spiritual slaves
Now they too are dead
Once whispers were heard from trees
No more wind
As the firebreeze sweeps allover

Awoken from deathdreams
Demons soar over your head
Ferocious glow in the eyes
Like vultures awaiting to feed
("Had they ever feared the light?")

Prophecy misread (Misunderstood)
No mystery
The bastard consumed
Like his hypocrisy
Ripping chests
Tearing down life
Choking from the blood in their throats
Inverted screams
Wolflike howls
Melted into one
The silence before the storm

Will never come
Of hell's fire and feed
Materialised demonseed

"Their nature is evil
Thru the evil comes the deeds"

Once the shadows danced on the graves
Spiritual slaves
Now they too are dead
Once whispers were heard from trees
No more wind

"A painting without a frame
A soul without a body
So free to grow, to whatever the desire might be"

Entering the infernal
They are to shake the earth
Stronger than the most
Demonic of them all

Risen from Gehenna
Uncowardly ones
Stronger than the most
Demonic of them all
