Called of the search

Need not know
Which way go

One left
A one of me
One more than there will ever be

The search of one takes me within
As predestined no diversion
The further I go...
The nearer absolution

A solid path
An immaculate way
Into a one
A one of me
One more than there will ever be
One more than there will ever be!!!
The saerch of one takes me within

As predestined no diversion
The further I go...
The nearer absolution

In seclution I find faith...
A faith I long
A faith I know not to be wrong

From a sole body to a sound mind
In which a forever I will find

The saerch of one takes me within
As predestined no diversion
The further I go...
The nearer absolution
