The snowflakes are dancing stirring in December's breeze spin drifting sideways swirling high in spiraled steeps catching stars and grooming wings while winter's breeze is whistling

(chorus)

Holly leaves and mistletoe a field asleep in falling snow the half-light of a candle's glow on the evergreen's a crimson bough

The night it sparkles glowing red and white and you & I are silhouettes against the blinking lights adrift amidst the snowflake skies along the silvered streets adorned like crowns, green & gold the branches twined in wreaths

(chorus)

North most star on high shines bright forth with light spangles so sprite glowing, overflowing this storybook with you

Cold December morning Christmas bells will ring echoing all around spill over into spring the tinsel and the splendor the garlands and the myrrh an angel high upon the tree and me on bended knee

(chorus)
