Sadness runs, lonely dies, fear explodes
The moment you arrive
And all the stars align, I'm fine

Life's a trip, start to fall, just in time
I float inside your eyes
I sit there for a while and smile

You know there's somebody out there
You know there's something out there
Well what are you waiting for?

Come aboard the rocket ship
We're blasting through the Milky Way
Where love is a billion meteors
Crash-landing into you

True love in the galaxy
Have you heard the crazy news isn't true
They say that love, it dies
Can't believe the lies they lie

They don't know where we live
The galaxy where love surpasses love
I wish they'd all just come with us
