Written by Andres Levin, Camus Celli, G. Route and J.M. Rivera

In this world, that we live in How much loving are you gonna give Everybody's looking for the saviour to be resurrected Looking to the heavens for someone to come down and protect us Everybody's in a race and there's no time to stop and look behind us Never ever trying to break these chains that always seem to bind us

CHORUS:

Everybody
Wanna change the world
Ain't nobody
Making changes
Everybody
Whether boy or girl
Everybody, everybody
Everybody
Want to rule the world
Ain't nobody
Making changes
Everybody
Whether boy or girl
And life goes Everybody's always talking brotherhood for generations Always saying how the past is wrong but you're not making changes Everybody says they're gonna take their time but do nothing 'bout it In the end your own best friend should be the one you turn to 'cause
