(Written by Beppe Savoni & Eddie Cumana)

You'll never get me back
back again honey
who do you think you are
to step on me
You'll never get me back
back again honey
who do you think you are
to step on me
now its time for me
to believe, I can do without you remember the days

When I used to cry tears cause you always let me down remember the times
you treated me badly
now its over baby
this time is for good

You'll never get me back
back again honey
who do you think you are
to step on me
You'll never get me back
back again honey
who do you think you are
to step on me
now its time for me

and there were the times you cheated on me
I thought my forgiveness was a proof of my love now I can see, (my eyes are open) what a fool I have been
now its over baby
back again honey

who do you think you are
to step on me
You'll never get me back
back again honey
who do you think you are
to step on me
now its time for me

babe,
I can do without you
I can do without you babe Say, I can do
and I can do without you (Just without you)

never get menever get me.....

SAY I CAN DO.....

You'll never get me back (babe)
back again honey
(I can do with out you)
who do you think you are (babe)
to step on me
(I want another man!)
You'll never get me back
back again honey
who do you think you are
to step on me
now its time for me
