woman, you never let me by even when i wanted it to die i'm sitting, waiting like a fool losing myself again now for you all i know is i loved you all this time all i know is i need you in my life need you in my life like a symbol of everything that was given for you i can't stand the pain

knowing what i gave away was for you

all i know is i loved you only wanted to feel you and me
and everything that i gave away was for you

of everything that was given up for you
