The last judgment

Days of judgment come to this world
Eternal night invaded this planet of sinners
Strange Creatures born from dark lands
Angels bring holy swords for kill rotten souls

Dark and Blood are in all this new world
Escape is impossible the judgment is for all
God wants more rules, Satan wants freedom
The sentences are not just god is unfair

Angels play trumpets, thunders on lands
Earthquakes cut the ground and the seaquakes kill all the animal live

The day of wrath come son all we are sinners on the eyes of god
We need to be ready for this war we need to support
Satan in the battle of the Armageddon
