We're lying in our bed
Thoughts running through my head
Why can't we be here forever?

The sheets we've set on fire
Everyone would admire
What we do when we're alone

Now we have to leave this place
I gently kiss your face
We say goodbye

I let my heart burn for you
I let my soul cry in tunes (of the song, that has always been our song)
I hope one day we'll be together
And we'll stay there forever

I let my heart burn for you
I let my soul cry in tunes (of the song, that has always been our song)
I hope one day we'll be together
And we'll stay...
