Load up your guns and spinout
There's no pride and There's no innocence
Turn to take it
When face it
Give out what you can
Colors in disguise
Walking blind everywhere
When all the rules they seem to amount to nothing
Give me fuel to live

It's gonna numb your mind and you,
Somehow make you feel denied Waste no time at all

“Maybe you're gonna take me down
Maybe I'm not afraid to fall
Life gave me what I need
I'm getting off the ground
Maybe you're gonna take me down
Maybe I'm not afraid to fall
And the answer is getting off the ground
getting off the ground”

Load up your guns and spin out
Get some action
There's no other chance it's the last call fight to make it real
It doesn't matter what the others said
You're the one who knows about yourself
It's up to you, who can regret?

“Maybe you're gonna take me down
Maybe I'm not afraid to fall
Life gave me what I need
I'm getting off the ground
Maybe you're gonna take me down
Maybe I'm not afraid to fall
And the answer is getting off the ground

The boy was an entire nation bones made of iron n stone
The boy was still a kid but felt like an ancient one Crawling
Falling
Drawing,
In the air
Around fire, night, and guns
When all the rules seem over
Who is gonna judge something they never lived?

solo

“Maybe you’re gonna take me down
Life gave me what I need,

Maybe you’re gonna take me down
