got a new disease, all values increase heaven will bleed, for this your greed nowhere to run, nothing to hide enemy the sun, progress your bride - so dwell! down on knees you feed the confusion your perfect mankind its just an illusion so smash the mirror that shows wrong welfare unbound the deformed slaves that went there

kill the emotions that you won't share forever, your dreams will vanish, there where thoughts are dying forever, a cursed future? believing in a digital master you are so pure, while life is so bright the enemy is you so kill the light? of your inner strange

forever, your hopes will vanish, there where joy is dying forever, a cursed mankind?
that believes in a digital master face of all your fears encourage yourself to find the real light, find love!
