There's something very wrong with me
I know that you've noticed
I cannot even try to hide that
I am a boy in name only
There's something very wrong with me
I'm a boy I'm a boy
I'm a boy in name only
Oh yeah

I know what you want me for
If you ask me I'm not so sure
I'd love to fill your void
But I am a boy in name only
Important pieces are missing
I'm a boy I'm a boy
I'm a boy in name only
Oh yeah

It's strange how my presence
Intersects with your
Plummeting expectations
You've resolved the flaws
Of your aloneness to components
And projected your hopes
Onto my lone axis

Since childhood's hour
I have not been
As others have been
I have not done a thing
For I am a boy in name only
And not worth considering
I'm a boy I'm a boy
I'm a boy in name only
Oh yeah
