That's the road, it's over there
And leading down to nowhere
This is the age when you're allowed
To have your own care

If you will have some pride
To plan your life ahead
Instead of waiting till you're old in your bed

I'll be over tonight, if you say you might
I'll be over tonight, indeed to put you right

I'm so used to writing
That's entirely your decision
Don't be restricted
By the weightless views you're given

If you will have some price
To fight and front a head
Instead of saving till your young heart is dead

I'll be over tonight, if you say you might
I'll be over tonight, indeed to put you right

Well, the note you wrote on your overcoat
But you don't wanna take it too far
Oh I think you won't but I know you don't
But you always say that you are

Never let the riches
That [Incomprehensible] give you
Show some concern for all the love
That you must live through

If you will have some pride
You'll plan your life ahead
Instead of waiting till you're old in your bed

I'll be over tonight, if you say you might
I'll be over tonight, indeed to put you right
I'll be over tonight, if you say you might
I'll be over tonight, indeed to put you right

I'll be over tonight, if you say you might
I'll be over tonight, indeed to put you right
I'll be over tonight, if you say you might
I'll be over tonight, indeed to put you right
