Jenny had a bawl at me the other night
She threw it up and drove away
So I made a call completely outa sight
Things to put up right today

When Alice comes back to the farm
I won't be in the cold tonight
When Alice comes back to the farm
You know it's gonna be alright, yeah, yeah

Gimme an appointment, put me in the light
That's a taste of what she needs
Such a disappointment, daddy's in the right
Time for tearing out the weeds

When Alice comes back to the farm
She won't be in the cold tonight
When Alice comes back to the farm
You know it's gonna be alright, yeah, yeah

Relax, now baby
That woman won't pass my door
I believe, I believe
That woman won't pass my door
She won't be raisin' no alarm
Don't get around much any more

Yeah, yeah, yeah

Alright, alright
Alright, alright
