Christine Bactine she's not in love but at least she's clean she's back she Stings she's not in love she's just insane stop the hurt from hurting but what's Behind the curtain disease and self reflection the dreams that cause infection She stayed home today to wash away the things you say outside closing in you Don't have to wash your hands again but she just got caught up on another Hygiene product to stop the hurt from hurting to stop her eyes from burning But maybe she'll come undone for that special someone with the frog in his Throat wash your mouth out with soap now I don't know what to say.
