You're an anomaly that's a thing without a name you're worming it out of me
And this worm you cannot change I want to drive you up the wall I want to Treat you like a doll I want to write it out in blood I want an oriental rug on a Star spangled night my love you can rest your head on my shoulder and by the Dawn's early light my love I will defend your right to cry I want to be there at Your trial I want a Love American Style cause I'm a former young american And I don't know if it's real or re-run there's something you ought to know Before you think you understand I'm invisible and I've got a robot friend I want To tie you to a post I want to make you tea and toast I want to be there at your Trial I want a love american style.
