Hello my old friend I wrote this song for you
Iâ€™m sure youâ€™re living
But I still can remember you
Always daydreaming
Watching burning tails of crocodiles
Snaking on your wall
Barely trying to catch up with some eyes

And if your brain is filled with clouds and darkness
Iâ€™ll dream for you

In your fallen angelâ€™s world I know
I was a stranger
But I have some pretender skill you know
I am a thief
And all the pieces of lights you broke
My heart was keeping
If you want it back Iâ€™ve got it all

And if your brain is filled with clouds and darkness
Iâ€™ll dream for you

If your brain is filled with clouds and darkness
Iâ€™ll dream for you
