I don't look at your page anymore
I'm afraid I lost my legendary disdain
'Cause I can't stand seeing pictures of you
Anymore
No I can't stand any more
And the fact is that I know it's completely silly
Yes I know it is so silly
But silly things
That my mind wants to wipe away
My deaf heart wants to keep
Oh I want you
I mean the whole of you
With everything inside
And this song
Could be written for you
If it wasn't for no one
Oh I want you
I mean the whole of you
With everything inside
And this album
Could be written for you
If it wasn't for no one
For no one
For no one
For no one
