(From the beginning God gave you a destiny, Dont ever think that destiny will not come to pass)

its been a long time coming now i see the light , so im running cus ive been waiting for so long to mess this up i gotta be strong

see ive been praying for a change cus i know trouble dont last always i see the light shining im reaching for the ray of hope because ooooooh!

i know i gotta, i gotta keep believing im staying on this path i aint never leaving im ready for today
cus nothings gonna get in the way (of my destiny)

no one can take my joy
no one can take my peace
no one can take my destiny
He's my everything!
and you cant take it from me!
(You cant take it from me!)

its clear that im here for a reason and im ready for a new season no turning back now i wont allow anything to bring me down ive stumbled along the way but i got back up because of his grace i had to grow and let him mold me im stepping into the path God has for me i know i gotta

i gotta keep believing

He's my everything!

He's my everything!

uh ooooooh!

its your time now let me hear you say it loud

He's my everything!

He's my everything!
