Women lie, men lie, skills don't you have your opinion but the fact is I'm real dope imma make a killin of the tracks that I build so either love me now or love me later cuz I will blow and the way my team is handling business is globally effective, but it wont be till I'm famous that I'm locally accepted so I do it for my city by I focus on the world cuz No one really cares until everybody else does Shoutout to the true fans who see the bigger picture we gon make believers out of every single listener but right now I feel the hate, like I'm on a date with a white girl walking by some very single sisters please don't get it twisted, I do not discriminate any girl can get it but only few will get a dinner date much more than a pretty broad is what I'm looking for not every dime can fall in my piggy bank so it's just talk with these Mrs. Right Nows cuz men lie, just to make women lie down am I too real, are you not feelin my style it's whatever so I'm grinnin not revealin my smile when I rock, laid back but my life's so crazy and I got, great tracks kinda like those ladies With the good weave, see this mic's gon pay me Got eyes on the money like Geico savings Commercial, minus the nonsense I'm ill with the rhymes man it's lyrical content PNG's own still shining, back home it's a jungle but I'm king, no lion Orlando's where I'm at right now and I'm grinding climbing, eating all these raps, no dining All who hear me speaking on a track know I am Fire, the hardest part is getting yall to listen
