Behind each door on every floor
There is an eye there is an ear
There is no secret here
There is no noise We have no fear
Agent A comes every day
He takes our cares away

Chorus:

Life in a glass house
Life under watchful eyes
No way to hide out
We all live - in a glass house
Our minds are clean
No secret dreams
A new design the perfect kind
We leave our thoughts behind

Chorus

Life under watchful eyes
Life in a glass house
No way to hide out
We all live - in a glass house
