Since I've been acquainted with you
Everything's wrong, you break all
Rules like a bull in a chinashop.
You're mad my friend, my feelings are flat.

How can you say it's just for fate?
How can I pay the bill, you made?
How can you say you're my rising sun,
While my world is goind down?

I feel like a man with a broken leg,

thrown into a kick-ass match
Someone get a stuck in you life
Don't want a piece 'cause I want it all
How can you say...

Wait for, pray for maybe you'll see

THE thing's can't go on like this
Bad conscience and a deadly kiss
You got a caecum in your brain
Stop it now, stop it somehow
How can you say...
