"Hold On"

Visit "Hold On" on MotoLyrics.com

I gave you my hand but you took my heart
I was hung and dried right from the start
At the end of my world, I can fly free:
Alone inside, hypnotized by the rhythm of the rain on me... wake up... then I wake up

I, I believe
I am, therefore you must be me;
Well I gave you my hand, but you took my heart
Dream out loud when you're falling down,
The secret is to never scream

Hold, hold on Let's hold on
We will always belong together
Hold, hold on
Please hold on
We will always belong together

We dig the tunnel down, and reach the pain
Suicide can fly and the tears bring rain;
Colours fill the sky, I can see your face
To sell your soul, you'd die
