all blurry, no focus now whats focus when the lights are all out i cant understand, why i keep you around but i cant, i wont let you down wondering, how long until we break foundations that we built are getting weak it seems that, we're springing a leak but i cant, i wont let us drown no i cant, i wont let you down i cant, and i wont let you down cause you know, that ill do anything for you and you see, that its aching inside me and i watch you go, and i dont run after you and i guess i just let you down when its not me, whos forgetting all our dreams
when its not me, whos forgetting all our whos forgetting all our dreams forgetting all our dreams
