You had a falling out with yourself that night,
but don't you dare complain.
I've seen this before. It's nothing new to me.
Just makes me strong you see.
You live your life just for others.
They change their act then you change yours too.
Things they change, I've lost track. What am I to do?
I will stay true to myself. I will stay true to myself.
You live your life just for others.
They change their act then you change yours too.
Things they change, I've lost track. What am I to do?
I will stay true to myself. I will stay true to myself.
You- you did it for others.
Me- I do it for myself.
You- you did it for others.
Me- I do it for myself.
I will stay true to myself. I will stay true to myself.
