You Feel let down, You Feel let down,
I can see things that matter to me
Are falling fast and breathing hard from neglect and the fear that I might not come back.

Scary- that i might not be who I'm supposed to be Monster- It's always been you hating me

I feel let down, I feel let down what i saw in you, my eyes deceived me I'm Choking on the ashes of my soul, or what's left you sure did the trick well planned attack and brilliant disguise

Scary- that i might not be who I'm supposed to be Monster- It's always been you hating me
well planned attack, brilliant disguise, but i want it back surrender felonies and sincere eyes

Scary- that i might not be who I'm supposed to be Monster- It's always been you hating me
