

Postmortem "Farewell Melody"

Visit "Farewell Melody" on MotoLyrics.com

Distance, interwall, wall
I close my eyes, I see the darkness
I don't need the words
The life begins and later ends

The crystal glass I hold in my hands
The purity of glass you'll never comprehend
The sun rays dry up like water, like my dreams
And you commit suicide in the age of dismay

The last command is to kill the mortals
The problem is solved and you are alive again
KILL!

Farewell melody - unburden my life
Farewell melody - the fatal force
Farewell melody - the impersonal soul
Farewell melody - is the end of god

The world of dead, my faith is sustained
Cursed by god, no man is begotten
Burning my flesh, kill the mortals
Is last command and you are alive again
