Another me is what there will never be-
Another life like this you'll never see!
Another day is what i think about-
Equal we are when time runs out!
Another memory i seem to be-
In a life long game of monopoly!

Sickness!-armagheddon!
I've prepared your eulogy
Wiz-i'm not!
Our father-who chills in heaven!
I worship you and your creation!
Thank you heavenly!
For my health and history!
If there comes a time-
In which i die before i wake!
My soul i know-you will take care of
And guide through!
Leaving earth-to meet you!

Another series is what i want to play-
Another problem i don't need today-
Another chore is what i want to choose-
Equal we are when time will lose!
Another plant is what i want to grow-
Another way is what i have to know-
Another direct line i want to bend-
Another form of disease i want to end!

Another task is what i want to risk!
Another mother i will never miss!
Another way i will find today-
Another chance i will soon display!
Equality-between you and me!
Another change allowing me to fly!
Another case of death-i want to die!
