I don't want to be the one who's always wrong
I don't need to know what you do or know
You are the one who wonders in your ride
Spreading the purest of its own kind

People come and people go but don't come close
Hiding their troubles with what sets more
It only shapes the mood of its new owner
Have a line or two but don't come closer
Why don't u get a call on the third line
After all three is good, six divine
Running up the holes of the head
Lakes and fires burning red

Having lines of people down the isle
Finders keepers not by will
Looking back in what you've done
Things can change, bring it on

Chorus:
Gooooo
Lets gooo I
And have some more
