wait up now, cuz the joker is left behind the clown, his face is melting he's been crying way too much later says the sun i'll rise whenever i feel like but when i do i'll give nobody light... then i'll show you my teeth and i'll be in my prime

coming back from time
going back to town
time she runs from me almost every time and i'll catch her now but now shes right behind far on earth but so close in my mind so far here on earth so close in my mind hemispheres they come and steer, when the world dont run...

eddie said vacate was the only word when the whiskers died never to return songs about songs telling tales of ill concern preachers preach but there's lessons to be learned hemispheres they come and ster when the world dont turn.
