Verse 1

My baby told me come on over honey,
Come closer and tell me a story (What's the story?)
not a story of war and peace,
not a story of kings and queens.

It's a story of a little girl who,
Circumnavigates the seven seas.
She pulls her red dress to her knees,
And calls the sailors out to sea.

Chorus

Say no more, she'll bring the moon that shines.
Say no more, girl she'll bring the sun that shines.

Verse 2

My baby told me it's within the sea.
The ocean holds all your wants and desires. (What you want?)
My baby said when she sings and calls him,
He can't help but feel a little fire.

And now I'm sitting at the bottom of the ocean
Feeling with the bottom of my heart and,
My red dress is getting a little older,
The blood in my veins is getting colder.
