"Almost"

I almost felt your heartbeat whispering in the wind
And I almost heard your footsteps walking up close behind me
Were you really there or were you not?
Do you know me or have you forgot?
Am I still a piece in your own mind?
Do you still, still have to look for me?
I almost smelled your scent but that wasn't yours, was it?
I almost heard your voice calling me down the hall
Were you thinking, thinking of me then?
Are you thinking, thinking of us now?
Am I still a piece in your own mind?
Do you still, still have to look for me?
Look for me...
