"Hearts Departed"

i need to tell you, something bad i'm sorry my face, makes you sad things are different, things have changed i dont know why they, cant stay the same the comforts gone, and in its place an awful feeling, I cant erase the sound of my void, pain is slow separating, disengaging i saw the future, i made it up we were two leaves, in a tea cup a drift to red, in perfect space everything was, in its place we hit the bottle, we lost our way we tried to climb up, but it was too late i watched it rain, this is good bye i cant believe its, really happened not again, not again ooooooooooooohhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh.....
