Why do I trust you ten years
Standing on the line
only to find out
I'll be laid off in July

Someday I swear
I'll buy and sell your soul
But in the meantime
I'll keep on shoveling coal

[Chorus]
One on the rack
And the next is coming
My hands are calloused and I
I can't take the heat
This place is like an oven
Why do I try

If I leave here without pension
And I go to the grave
My life will be forced to love another
For the rent that will he will pay

Did you ever bother to think of the repercussions
Of dealing with a guy like me
It's not like you pay me minimum wage
But now you're taking my dignity

[Chorus]
One on the rack
And the next is coming
My hands are calloused and I
I can't take the heat
This place is like an oven
Why do I try

[Chorus]
One on the rack
And the next is coming
My hands are calloused and I
I can't take the heat
This place is like an oven

Why do I try
