My love I know I was wrong
Thought I'll let go to move on
Then theres just one thing that I must do
Need to prove to you again
You're still the one till the end
Erase this heartbreak I've been going through

Let me show you
Everything that could be
All the love thats in me
When we're again, oh my baby

I can't deny
Just what you mean to me
Words can't describe, its all in my heart
The more I try
To live individually
Something tells me, take it back in time
Take it back in time
Rewind

This symphony of you and me
Keeps on longing to be
Those memories they circle through my mind
I guess some things are destiny
Now I finally see
The one true thing I need is you inside

Let me show you
Exactly how it could be
Something that it should be
When we're again, oh my baby

I can't deny
Just what you mean to me
Words can't describe, its all in my heart
The more I try
To live individually
Something tells me, take it back in time
Take it back in time
Rewind

The more I try, the more I find
All we had you and me
Now I long to right this wrong
And be with you again
