I follow you but it's not that simple
I'd follow you but it's not that simple
You're so contagious, You're still my favorite
You're disappearing act is growing tired
I'm sick of being left hear all alone
I'd follow you but it's not that simple
I turn around and gone

Ooh and my heart is breaking
And I've been waiting for the longest time
Step Down, Discard Me
Ooh and my heart is breaking
And I've been waiting for the longest time
I've been waiting for, I'm waiting for, I'm waiting for the longest time

You held me in, I ripped you out
You're so contagious, He's still my favorite
He was my friend now he's my lover
He's just a fix to help me get through this
You held me in, I ripped you out
You thought I'd wait but I'm gone

You ripped the tape from my healing heartbreak
I'm so infected, can I be saved
I've quit your games for the last time
