Tell me, Tell me, why I haven't heard from you now. For far too many days and I want to know what's up with all the drama? You're never this way. We used to share, we used to listen to everything we said. What happened to our endless friendship? It's why I'm saying...

Tell me, Tell me, why you're so far away? Why don't you stay? Tell me, Tell me, why can't we just work it out? Whooooaa. Stay.

Tell me, Tell me, was it something that I did? Something that I said? If I hurt you then I'll gladly say I'm sorry. Again and again. We used to share, we used to listen to everything we said. What happened to our endless friendship? It's why I'm saying...

Tell me, Tell me, why you're so far away? Why don't you stay? Tell me, Tell me, why can't we just work it out? Whooooaa.

Remember all those days we left from talks but they went so fast. Now I'm stuck here living in our past December. But I know you're really not that bad. To tell the truth, I'm really not that mad. But the fact that you're distant makes me really sad.

Tell me, Tell me, why you're so far away? Why don't you stay? Tell me, Tell me, why can't we just work it out? Whooooaa.

Tell me, Tell me, why you're so far away? Why don't you stay? Tell me, Tell me, why can't we just work it out? Whooooaa.
