Eternal light for a broken love
My man forever, even if it's only in my heart
The eternal flame will cease my pain and
Give me the warmth I miss so much

Eternal light for a broken love
My man forever, even if it's only in my dreams
The eternal flame will cease my pain and
Give me the peace I miss so much

A sea of flames for each tear I cried
Flames do burn the emptiness inside
Flames which show me the way I never wanted to go
And give me the strength to carry on
To follow the road to Nowhereland
Where nothing awaits me

Eternal light for a broken soul
My fate forever, memories are haunting my dreams
Eternal flames, they cease my pain
Quiet they whisper your name
