You are the world to me
The sun in the sky
The moon in the night
The stars full of light
Absolutely everything

(The sun in the sky
The moon in the night
The stars full of light
The world full of fright)

Tonight I realize how much you mean to me
Realize how much I really see
Realize how much I couldn't see
Realize you are my everything.

Realize the same please do you even really love me!!

Tell me know or hold the truth
We won't be forever youth
So now is the time tell me now
Hold your truth or forever sound

Your voice stuck inside my head
Your love will forever be mine
Love me till the day is dead
And until sun never shine's again
Hold me till I'm in your heart
And your love is forever mine

You mean the world to me
The sun in the sky
The moon in the night
The stars full of light
The world full of fright

Tell me now Romeo your Juliet is waiting!!!
