

Moxy Fruvous "Poor Mary Lane"

Visit "Poor Mary Lane" on MotoLyrics.com

(Jian)

She lowered her head when they layed all the blame
The charge was clear

(All)

Poor Mary Lane, Poor Mary Lane

(Jian)

And I've been her swordsman of national fame
Her knight so dear

(All)

Poor Mary Lane, Poor Mary Lane

Trapped in her castle
In mourning and still a dreamer
What began as a haste
If anything wouldn't seem her
I put down my head when they layed all the blame
I spoke in fear

Poor Mary Lane, Poor Mary Lane
And I've been her swordsman of national fame
Her knight was here

Poor Mary Lane, Poor Mary Lane
Then we were in college
And he was our prince of knowledge
For my love I would promise
To be her alibi and accomplice

(All)

Poor Mary Lane, Poor Mary Lane

(All)

Social Professor didn't stop when he carressed her
He laughed in tears at their shame
And though she calculated,
So it was premeditated
What could she do?

(Jian)

We lowered our heads when they laid all the blame
Put her away

(All)
Poor Mary Lane, Poor Mary Lane

(Jian)
And I though the plan would be clearing her name
We lost that day

(All)
Poor Mary Lane, Poor Mary Lane

(Jian)
Lowered our heads when they layed all the blame
Put her away

(All)
Poor Mary Lane, Poor Mary Lane...

From the Liner:
(Mike-guitar, vocal; Murray-bass, vocal; Jean-guitar, drums, lead vocal; David-organ, vocal)

Visit Moxy Fruvous page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.