(Mike)
Spiderman, Spiderman
Friendly neighborhood Spiderman
Is he strong? Listen bud,
He's got radioactive blood
Hey there

(rest)
Where?

(Mike)
There goes the Spiderman

(Mike)
Spiderman, Spiderman
Does whatever a spider can
Shooby Doo, rock steady crew
Find him an octoped ingenue
With flair

(rest)
Hair!

(Mike)
There goes the Spiderman

(All)
In the heat of night at the scene of crime
With the speed of light he arrives just in time

(Mike speaking in funny voice)
Well, no red-blooded boy or girl would miss this Saturday's
Appearance of Spiderman down at the local county fair, unless,
Of course, they're at home with their collections.

(Mike)
Spiderman's master plan
Build his own little spider clan
In the woods, now they're troops
Fighting for special interest groups

Look out

(rest)
Where?

(Mike)
Wherever there's a bang

(rest)
There!

(Mike)
You'll find a great big hang

(rest)
Scare!

(Mike)
You'll find the

(All)
Spiderman!

(Mike)
Scoobydoobydoobydoobydobow!

(Mike speaking)
My spider sense is tingling
Heh, heh, it sure is, in such films as:
Spidey Goes Speed Racing
Spidey Hawaii
Spidey's Girl
Spidey, My Pal
Spidey, The Under Water Adventure Seeker
Spidey, The Fun Licker
Spidey, A Drink For All Ages

Original song written by Stephen Lemberg
