Just give a little twist, little turn
keep on looking in the right direction baby.
I'm alive with with the lights, with the lies.
But i kept on building, building stack it up.
Little architect, it's crazy.
White shirt, black dressed tie, dressed to the nine times too many times, i couldn't wait to get out of the night life, it's a straight lie.

Just calm down the trauma's on the inside
My lines been drawn
Just calm down, the trauma's on the inside
I don't want to be wasting time (wasting time)
Wasting time.

Do you think that you'd call me crazy
contrary and i shine amazing.
Aging, Aging process call it quits.
Quick sand i trudged through and everything i meant too.
Say so, so so, the young ones, the dumbs ones
The "stupid" you called it but i called it flawless.
Played out and faded and planted.
Pan left and right set the curtain.

Just calm down the trauma's on the inside
My lines been drawn
Just calm down, the trauma's on the inside
I don't want to ..

My ticket, my destination singing "Hallelujah"
Oh god i think i've really changed
but she will love me all the same
my dear it's all for you
and i will pay my dues
I owe you some 8 years, it's coming to ya.
Ha!

Don't say calm down, and don't quit this town
i left cause' i was bored and what might be in store

Don't make a sound, cause' i'll be round'

Oooh.

See, i wish you could buckle up and take a chance
you know i really do, really do and you really, really do a-whoa.
Just come along, come along, come along.
Time's up, life's up.
But I, I won't go.

My ticket, my destination singing "Hallelujah"
Oh god i think i've really changed
but she will love me all the same
my dear it's all for you
and i will pay my dues
I owe you some 8 years, it's coming to ya.

Hallelujah, Hallelujah.
I've left town and i won't come home,
Ohio, i don't know Michigindiana, california
Where's home?

Why oh why? do eyes collide?
Why won't it feel the same oh why oh..wonderstand.
Why oh why? do eyes collide?
(words keep on running me down, keep on running me down)
Why won't it feel the same oh why oh..wonderstand.

So now i won't play games, and i won't change.

My ticket, my destination singing "Hallelujah"
Oh god i think i've really changed
but she will love me all the same
my dear it's all for you
and i will pay my dues
I owe you some 8 years, it's coming to ya.

My dream and now i'm getting out and screaming,
"Hallelujah"
Today's the day my life will change,
you're gonna make it all the same
Darling it's all for you.
I'm count 4,3,2,1.
