the way that i acted, so irrational you saw me lying useless on the asphalt and that other girl, im pretty sure she didnt know played out with cables but i jumped it so its not slow and was i everything you asked for now?

take what you can get so when a robot falls in love we clap clap i saw an angel from above i had a heart attack

and i awoke with blood on my nose cuz everyones an enemy and everyones a memory and i am so sick of this town so what would you say we leave just you and me? and we can make some memories we'll drive to the south live on some texas beach our lives will be in perfect harmony so was i everything you asked for now?

under the floorboards inside the walls i am you the vampires smile has got you here any last words now?

and i am so sick of this i am so sick of this if i could see you fall in love id clap clap cuz youre an angel from above giving me heart attacks and you awoke with blood all on your nose

dont give up anything you want cuz it all comes in time lately ive been having these dreams i saved my spot in line the only things im sure of baby you will hear right now im feeling more than touch my words have said enough i swear that what i love is what ill live sing it with conviction be sincere
