Now I'm not saying that I'm
Feeling lonely but I
Wouldn't mind if you'd
Come and warm me for a while
Baby for a while
Because you're
Hot in the outside and you're
Sweet in the middle and I'm Guessin' that someday you might Want just a little of my love
That's what I'm thinkin' of

Don't pretend there's nothing there
Don't act as if you were unaware

'cause I can see it in your eyes
Every secret thing
I can read between the lines
Every secret thing

You thought you had me figured for a
Somethin' or other or the
Kind of guy you wouldn't
Bring home to mother
Now you know
My love will only grow

Don't pretend there's nothing there
Don't act as if you were unaware

-Chorus-

...we hide and keep from one another
Won't change this night...
Tonight will last forever
